

Keep thy heart with all diligence; for out of it are the issues of life. Proverbs 4:23

THE OTISFIELD NEWS

VOL. 4 ISSUED WEEKLY THURSDAY, JULY 8, 1948 PRICE 5 CENTS COPY 18

The Vacation Bible School picnic was held at the Baptist Church today. Tomorrow evening there will be an exhibition of what has been accomplished during the two weeks session.

Mrs. Alma Jones, Harry, Mary and Eleanor all of Livermore were guests of Mrs. B. C. Jillson and family Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Nutting and daughter Cecile are spending two weeks at the C. E. Lamb cottage on Lake Thompson.

Mr. and Mrs. George Lafferty of North Windham were holiday guests of Mr. and Mrs. Gifford Welch.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Mayberry, Violet Nutting and Sarah Mayberry will arrive at the Martin place for a two weeks visit on July 25th. We wish the old friends would call around.

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Cameron from Massachusetts with son and daughter are spending the week at Ruth Ralphs home.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Hamilton have purchased a house lot from Ralph and Dorothy Lamb at the four corners, near the Honor Roll.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Dyer of South Bridgton and son John were Sunday visitors at Mr. and Mrs. Ben Dyers.

Mr. and Mrs. Oscar Martin and children of South Berwick were in town Sunday calling on friends and old neighbors.

Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Webber Sr. were supper guests of Mr. and Mrs. Bob Horton in Waterford Tuesday.

It is reported that the celebration at Bolsters Mills Monday was a grand success. The Grange there cleared over $30 for the supper.

Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Page were at their summer home on Cobbs Hill over the holiday week end. Guests there were Mr. and Mrs. John Doherty of South Boston and Mr. and Mrs. Anderson from New York.

Forest Mirick, who has been vacationing at Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Peacos, returned to Massachusetts Friday.

Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Butler enjoyed a get-together of their whole family on the Fourth. A picnic dinner was served.

Mae Jillson of Auburn and daughters were at their home here Sunday and Monday.

June Wiley spent several days last week as a guest of Anita Jakola; this week Miss Jakola is visiting Miss Wiley.

Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Greenleaf have moved into their new cottage on the Lake Road. On the Fourth Mr. and Mrs. Martin Wiley and family and Jack LaBelle had a picnic dinner with them.

Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Vining and children visited Mr. and Mrs. Les Bryant in Dryants Pond Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. Wendall Gilbert of Auburn were visitors at the Harry Jackson home.

OTISFIELD GORE

Over a hundred neighbors and friends gathered at the school-house Friday evening to give Mr. and Mrs. Frank Paine (Vera Thurlow) a wedding reception. The young couple received a nice variety of lovely and useful gifts. Refreshments of icecream and cake were served. The party broke up at a late hour with the Best Wishes of all their friends for a long and happy life.

Several men gathered at the Grange site Sunday and Monday and finished putting in the cement for the foundation. After this hardens they will begin on the cement blocks and are in hopes it will look as if they were getting ahead faster.

Mr. and Mrs. Sanford Annis, Bessie, Wayne and Richard Dresser, Ruth Thomas, Hazel, Florence and George Hill and Mr. and Mrs. N. A. Green were among those who went to Harrison Tuesday evening to attend Pomona. The fifth degree was conferred on a class of 47 candidates. Refreshments of sandwiches, cake, doughnuts and coffee were served after the meeting.

Mr. and Mrs. Elbridge Woodworth of South Paris and daughter were Thursday evening callers of Ruby and Thannie Green.

Sonia Johnson, who works at Great Oaks Camp spent Saturday afternoon and evening with her folks Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Johnson and family.

Mr. Eugene Morong, who is working for his uncle Loren Brett spent the week end with his folks at Lisbon Falls.

Shirley Thomas is sort of laid on the shelf with an infected war drum. She has to make regular trips to her Doctor in Norway.

Mrs. Doris Brooks of Lewiston and her daughter Barbara had dinner with her father Sanford Annis and wife Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Johnson and family enjoyed a picnic dinner Monday and went to West Paris to the ball game in the afternoon.

Verne Dresser and mother of Fryeburg took dinner with his cousin Earle Dresser and family Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Francis Hill and mother Lillian Hill were callers of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Thurlow and family Sunday. They came for Miss Barbara Hill who had spent the week end with the Thurlow girls.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Thurlow went to Paris Hill Monday morning to play for the dance held in Alton Conants new dance hall that he made out of a barn. Mabel played and Charlie called off the dances

continued on Page 3

F.J. COMMENTS

Make hay while the sun shines, so also do garden work even now that some of it is paying its dues. Peas, berries, spinach, Swiss chard, green onions, radishes, rhubarb etc. are now on the roadside markets. So many of the farming community almost consider it beneath their dignity to sell such small items.

Mrs. John McKee (nee Mary McAuliffe) has come "North" for a visit and to remain at home for the summer. 102<sup>6</sup> when she left New York makes this cool change almost a major operation. Lt. (jg) being at Columbia on the Council of the Advisory Board and at the same time studying for his degree keeps him "on duty!"

We missed some of the damaging storms which visited other parts of the State.

Czechoslovakia has her troubles now for attaching herself to U.S.S.R. The populace have felt the yoke and are paying for it.

Russia is stepping off Uncle Sams "corn" in Berlin and now even Wallace's Party is recognizing what appeasing the Bear may mean.

Get out your gloves for a hot time in the whole country when the Democratic Convention comes on. The G.O.P. will only be a preliminary bout. If "Little Ike" gets into the ring—Oh My? Oh My!!

Coal is to take another jump and our Congress was to lower the cost of living. The D.P. bill will be a matter for political football.

Campers are getting quite common on the highways and byways of our countryside.

We all hope the OBA and the Fire Department have an evening try-out of our new fire equipment.

Mrs. Jackson's son has joined up to serve his country. Go luck to him!

No fatalities reported in our district for 4th of July. Not so in other sections.

Potatoes in blossom.

The following was handed the Editor in reply to a recent article by "A Reader".

The Loring house was built by Nathan White; the Sam Reed house was built by his father William Reed; the town farm house was built by Deacon Elias Hancock; the Luht place was built by a Winship.

Spurrs Corner may have their bears, beaver and deer, but East Otisfield have beavers, moose which tramp thru gardens and deer with wild cats seen on the Coon Road,—to say nothing about weasels and muskrats; but we haven't yet seen the bear, only a loon nesting in the Cove and hatching two little ones.

The old mill site back of Rayville Church was built by Dave Morse and Elijah Scribner.

Any other items pertaining to the town will be welcomed by this paper.

Farmers are in the middle of haying season with the hoeing vying for first place.

SCRIBNER HILL NOTES

Lena K. Dyer

Rev. F.J. Loungway went to Boston Saturday afternoon and returned Sunday night.

Maurice Whitcomb and John Loungway are busy spraying whenever the sun shines.

Mr. and Mrs. Pete Jordan and two children were dinner guests of the Culberts Sunday.

The Dyers spent Sunday with the A.M. Pottles at their camp on Thompson Lake.

Gloria and Sonja Jillson spent a week with their grandfather Mr. D.L. Gustus at Turner.

Fred and Doris Culbert, Lida Grover, Howard and Lena Dyer and Margelia Hamlin were shopping at Lewiston Tuesday.

Gordon and Lida Grover spent the week end painting at their new home. Sunday evening Mr. and Mrs. Albert Hamlin and Mr. and Mrs. Fred Culbert called on them.

Dr. and Mrs. George O. Cummings of Cape Elizabeth were guests of the Dyers Monday.

John Loungway entertained the neighbors with fire works on the evening of July 5th.

Theodore Culbert of Oxford visited his brother Fred Friday.

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Lowe have gone to Boothbay Harbor for the summer.

Sush weather! You can't hay and you can't hoe so why not go fishing?

Helen Peaco tells us that she and the other members of her family have been down to the lake for a swim. The Loungway family have also been down a few times.

Brave People.

SOUTH OTISFIELD

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Spencer of Welchville and children, Mr. and Mrs. Sulo Pulkkinen of Oxford and Miss Miriam Pulkkinen, Mr. and Mrs. Lindley Fortier and son, and Mr. and Mrs. Fred Fortier Jr. and daughter enjoyed a picnic dinner with Mr. and Mrs. Fred Fortier at Pleasant Lake Sunday.

Matthew Strauss, William Gluckmann and Mr. Freidman of New York City spent the holidays with their wives at Camp Truda.

Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Fortier went to the White Mts. with Mr. and Mrs. Junior Hanscom of Poland Sunday.

Arthur Fortier of Roslindale, Mass. is visiting his father Joseph Fortier and brother Fred Fortier and family.

Mr. and Mrs. Gene Chapman of Auburn were guests of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Hamilton Monday; on Tuesday the Hamiltons visited the Chapmans.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Whittum and family spent Sunday with her parents Mr. and Mrs. Channing Edwards on Johnson Hill.

Grace Plumb of Auburn was a recent guest of the S.D. Nuttings.

SPURRS CORNER

Sunday's topics at the Spurs Corner Church will be, "Parable of the Sower," and "Preparation for Pentecost."

Daily Vacation Bible School will be held at the church beginning Monday, July 19 and lasting for two weeks.

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Shackley were visitors at Mr. and Mrs. Frank Shackleys and Mr. and Mrs. William Ashs over the holiday.

Monday George Chesley and Louie Baker went fishing.

Mr. and Mrs. Howard Shackley and Wilmont and Crystal Ash called on Mr. and Mrs. Harry Cross and family in Bridgton Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. George Chesley and Billy, Mr. and Mrs. Louie Baker and Frances called on Mr. and Mrs. William Ash Jr. Sunday.

Jason Little and Ethel Jash and family were callers at Chesleys this week.

Mr. and Mrs. John Cask were visitors at Harold Cashes Sunday.

Otisfield Gore

from 1 a.m. to 5 a.m. They report a fine crowd and a good time.

Mr. and Mrs. Everett York took Mr. and Mrs. Sanford Annis and went around the Mountains Sunday, going through Evans Notch and back by way of Fryeburg where they called on Everetts old friend John Manchester. When they started to leave there the car refused to go, so Warren Richardson towed them home then went up and had supper with his cousin Harle Dresser and family.

The entire Thomas family had a picnic dinner Sunday at Windham picnic grounds. There were 18 present. As Mrs. Sarah Thomas birthday came this week she was presented a birthday cake and gifts from the group.

Mr. and Mrs. George Linnell called on Thannie and Ruby Green Saturday evening.

Master James Brett stayed with Ruby Green Saturday evening so that his folks, Mr. and Mrs. Loren Brett could celebrate the night before the 4th. They went to Crescent Lake Pavilion with Mr. and Mrs. Orrell Linnell.

Callers of Mr. and Mrs. Loren Brett and family Wednesday evening were Mr. and Mrs. E.O. Buck and Mr. and Mrs. Reino Johnson and son. Thursday evening callers were Mr. and Mrs. Orrell Linnell.

Thannie and Ruby Green has as supper guests Sunday Mr. and Mrs. N.B. Green and son; Chickey Avery and Herbert Barker. Callers during the day were George Hill, Ralph Vining, Madeline Brett and son James, Tonyce Johnson, Mr. and Mrs. Lewis Knightley and 3 girls and Mr. and Mrs. Elias Johnson. On Monday the Greens entertained Mr. and Mrs. Frank Green and daughter Elaine for dinner and had as callers Gloria, Margaret, Richard, Kenneth and Russell Day and Mr. and Mrs. N.B. Green and son.

Mr. and Mrs. Sanford Annis attended the celebration at Bolsters Mills Monday A.M. and report a nice dinner

GERTRUDES CORNER

Hi folks. Did everybody get over the 4th of July all safely? When the 4th of July comes on Sunday then Monday becomes the day to celebrate, - thus the 5th becomes the 4th. We spent the day at the favorite lake and judging by the crowd it was the favorite of others.

At night little fireworks all around at the camps were seen and quite a lot of explosions heard.

Some of the explosions were felt by members of our party; one was hit on her neck slightly and the other on her hind leg.

At the time of the Declaration of Independence, 172 years ago, hardly any of the articles so common today existed, even matches. But the signers of that famous paper whose names range from Josiah Bartlett of New Hampshire to Button Gwinnett of Georgia loved the land they lived in and believed they should have a government that was fair to everyone alike.

- Gertrude I. Barrows

STANDING GRASS FOR SALE AT THE MARTIN PLACE.

Everyone knows Ike changed history and perhaps the fate of the nation when he said, "No." There's a man resting over in York State that says, "Maybe." We are all quite interested in the matter though we are d---d republicans too. We wish someone would stop Gertrude I. Barrows bragging; didn't you hear her? Bragging about the weather - the next thing she will be bragging about those tax bills. We do not seem to be saying much about bringing an industry to town; right now FOOD is the great industry everywhere. - Grace Dyer can raise peach trees. Dana Stuart used to say peaches were the best crop a Maine farmer could raise - IF he could do it. Grace always had a green thumb. They say if we really want to make money we should plow up the old pasture and raise beef; it is bound to be high for years. If those tax bills hadn't had us on the run we would like to have said something about the bushes on Bell Hill. Said bushes on both sides of the hill are higher than Mt. Washington. Take your axe when you go that way and cut the bushes. Be careful not to cut the third one. - A Reader.

at noon. In the P.M. they went to Oxford to take some fireworks to her grandchildren and visit her daughter Caribel Jackson and family.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Thurlow and family were in Bolsters Mills Monday A.M. and West Paris in the P.M.

Bessie Dresser and daughter Lucile attended the dance at Bolsters Mills Saturday night. Sunday evening the Earle Dressers called on friends in Waterford.

Mr. and Mrs. Loren Brett, son James and Mr. and Mrs. Orrell Linnell were

THE OTISFIELD NEWS

Vol. 4 ISSUED WEEKLY THURSDAY, JULY 8, 1948 PRICE .05 COPY 18

The Vacation Bible School picnic was held at the Baptist Church today. Tomorrow evening there will be an exhibition of what has been accomplished during the two weeks session.

Mrs. Alma Jones, Harry, Mary and Eleanor all of Livermore were guests of Mrs. B.C. Jillson and family Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Nutting and daughter Cecile are spending two weeks at the C.E. Lamb cottage on Lake Thompson.

Mr. and Mrs. George Lafferty of North Windham were holiday guests of Mr. and Mrs. Gifford Welch.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Mayberry, Violet Nutting and Sarah Mayberry will arrive at the Martin place for a two weeks visit on July 25th. We wish the old friends would call around.

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Cameron from Massachusetts with son and daughter are spending the week at Ruth Ralphs home.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Hamilton have purchased a house lot from Ralph and Dorothy Lamb at the four corners, near the Honor Roll.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Dyer of South Bridgton and son John were Sunday visitors at Mr. and Mrs. Ben Dyers.

Mr. and Mrs. Oscar Martin and children of South Berwick were in town Sunday calling on friends and old neighbors.

Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Webber Sr. were supper guests of Mr. and Mrs. Bob Horton in Waterford Tuesday.

It is reported that the celebration at Bolsters Mills Monday was a grand success. The Grange there cleared over $30 for the supper.

Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Page were at their summer home on Cobbs Hill over the holiday week end. Guests there were Mr. and Mrs. John Doherty of South Boston and Mr. and Mrs. Anderson from New York.

Forest Mirick, who has been vacationing at Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Peacos, returned to Massachusetts Friday.

Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Butler enjoyed a get-together of their whole family on the Fourth. A picnic dinner was served.

Mae Jillson of Auburn and daughters were at their home here Sunday and Monday.

June Wiley spent several days last week as a guest of Anita Jakola; this week Miss Jakola is visiting Miss Wiley.

Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Greenleaf have moved into their new cottage on the Lake Road. On the Fourth Mr. and Mrs. Martin Wiley and family and Jack LaBelle had a picnic dinner with them.

Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Vining and children visited Mr. and Mrs. Les Bryant in Bryants Pond Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. Wendall Gilbert of Auburn were visitors at the Harry Gosses Monday.

OTISFIELD GORE

Over a hundred neighbors and friends gathered at the school-house Friday evening to give Mr. and Mrs. Frank Paine (Vera Thurlow) a wedding reception. The young couple received a nice variety of lovely and useful gifts. Refreshments of icecream and cake were served. The party broke up at a late hour with the Best Wishes of all their friends for a long and happy life.

Several men gathered at the Grange site Sunday and Monday and finished putting in the cement for the foundation. After this hardens they will begin on the cement blocks and are in hopes it will look as if they were getting ahead faster.

Mr. and Mrs. Sanford Annis, Bessie, Wayne and Richard Dresser, Ruth Thomas, Hazel, Florence and George Hill and Mr. and Mrs. N.A. Green were among those who went to Harrison Tuesday evening to attend Pomona. The fifth degree was conferred on a class of 47 candidates. Refreshments of sandwiches, cake, doughnuts and coffee were served after the meeting.

Mr. and Mrs. Elbridge Woodworth of South Paris and daughter were Thursday evening callers of Ruby and Thannie Green.

Sonie Johnson, who works at Great Oaks Camp spent Saturday afternoon and evening with her folks Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Johnson and family.

Mr. Eugene Morong, who is working for his uncle Loren Brett spent the week end with his folks at Lisbon Falls.

Shirley Thomas is sort of laid on the shelf with an infected war drum. She has to make regular trips to her Doctor in Norway.

Mrs. Doris Brooks of Lewiston and her daughter Barbara had dinner with her father Sanford Annis and wife Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Johnson and family enjoyed a picnic dinner Monday and went to West Paris to the ball game in the afternoon.

Vorne Dresser and mother of Fryeburg took dinner with his cousin Earle Dresser and family Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Francis Hill and mother Lillian Hill were callers of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Thurlow and family Sunday. They came for Miss Barbara Hill who had spent the week end with the Thurlow girls.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Thurlow went to Paris Hill Monday morning to play for the dance held in Alton Conants new dance hall that he made out of a barn. Mabel played and Charlie called off the dances

continued on Page 3

F.J. COMMENTS

Make hay while the sun shines, so also do garden work even now that some of it is paying its dues. Peas, berries, spinach, swiss chard, green onions, radishes, rhubarb etc. are now on the roadside markets. So many of the farming community almost consider it beneath their dignity to sell such small items.

Mrs. John McKee (nee Mary McAuliffe) has come "North" for a visit and to remain at home for the summer. 102<sup>6</sup> when she left New York makes this cool change almost a major operation. Lt. (jg) being at Columbia on the Council of the Advisory Board and at the same time studying for his degree keeps him "on duty!"

We missed some of the damageing storms which visited other parts of the State.

Czechoslovakia has her troubles now for attaching herself to U.S.S.R. The populace have felt the yoke and are paying for it.

Russia is stepping off Uncle Sams "hook" in Berlin and now even Wallace's Party is recognizing what appeasing the Bear may mean.

Get out your gloves for a hot time in the whole country when the Democratic Convention comes on. The G.O. P. will only be a preliminary bout. If "Little Ike" gets into the ring—Oh My? Oh My!!

Coal is to take another jump and our Congress was to lower the cost of living. The D.P. bill will be a matter for political football.

Campers are getting quite common on the highways and byways of our countryside.

We all hope the OBA and the Fire Department have an evening try-out of our new fire equipment.

Mrs. Jackson's son has joined up to serve his country. Go 'l luck to him!

No fatalities reported in our district for 4th of July. Not so in other sections.

Potatoes in blossom.

The following was handed the Editor in reply to a recent article by "A Reader".

The Loring house was built by Nathan White; the Sam Reed house was built by his father William Reed; the town farm house was built by Deacon Elias Hancock; the Luht place was built by a Winship. _ _

Spurrs Corner may have their bears, beaver and deer, but East Otisfield have beavers, moose which tramp thru gardens and deer with wild cats seen on the Coon Road, —to say nothing about weasels and muskrats; but we haven't yet seen the bear, only a loon nesting in the Cove and hatching two little ones. _ _

The old mill site back of Rayville Church was built by Dave Morse and Elijah Scribner.

Any other items pertaining to the town will be welcomed by this paper.

Farmers are in the middle of haying season with the hoeing vying for first place.

SCRIBNER HILL NOTES

Lena K. Dyer

Rev. F.J. Loungway went to Boston Saturday afternoon and returned Sunday night.

Maurice Whitcomb and John Loungway are busy spraying whenever the sun shines.

Mr. and Mrs. Pete Jordan and two children were dinner guests of the Culberts Sunday.

The Dyers spent Sunday with the A.M. Pottles at their camp on Thompson Lake.

Gloria and Sonja Jillson spent a week with their grandfather Mr. D.L. Gustus at Turner.

Fred and Doris Culbert, Lida Grover, Howard and Lena Dyer and Margelia Hamlin were shopping at Lewiston Tuesday.

Gordon and Lida Grover spent the week end painting at their new home. Sunday evening Mr. and Mrs. Albert Hamlin and Mr. and Mrs. Fred Culbert called on them.

Dr. and Mrs. George C. Cummings of Cape Elizabeth were guests of the Dyers Monday.

John Loungway entertained the neighbors with fire works on the evening of July 5th.

Theodore Culbert of Oxford visited his brother Fred Friday.

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Lowe have gone to Boothbay Harbor for the summer.

Sush weather! You can't hay and you can't hoe so why not go fishing?

Helen Peaco tells us that she and the other members of her family have been down to the lake for a swim. The Loungway family have also been down a few times.

Brave People.

SOUTH OTISFIELD

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Spencer of Welchville and children, Mr. and Mrs. Sulo Pulkkinen of Oxford and Miss Miriam Pulkkinen, Mr. and Mrs. Lindley Fortier and son, and Mr. and Mrs. Fred Fortier Jr. and daughter enjoyed a picnic dinner with Mr. and Mrs. Fred Fortier at Pleasant Lake Sunday.

Matthew Strauss, William Gluckmann and Mr. Freidman of New York City spent the holidays with their wives at Camp Truda.

Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Fortier went to the White Mts. with Mr. and Mrs. Junior Hanscom of Poland Sunday.

Arthur Fortier of Roslindale, Mass. is visiting his father Joseph Fortier and brother Fred Fortier and family.

Mr. and Mrs. Gene Chapman of Auburn were guests of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Hamilton Monday; on Tuesday the Hamiltons visited the Chapmans.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Whittum and family spent Sunday with her parents Mr. and Mrs. Channing Edwards on Johnson Hill.

Grace Plumb of Auburn was a recent guest of the S.D. Nuttings.

SPURRS CORNER

Sunday's topics at the Spurrs Corner Church will be, "Parable of the Sower," and "Preparation for Pentecost."

Daily Vacation Bible School will be held at the church beginning Monday, July 19 and lasting for two weeks.

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Shackley were visitors at Mr. and Mrs. Frank Shackleys and Mr. and Mrs. William Ashs over the holiday.

Monday George Chesley and Louie Baker went fishing.

Mr. and Mrs. Howard Shackley and Wilmont and Crystal Ash called on Mr. and Mrs. Harry Cross and family in Bridgton Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. George Chesley and Billy, Mr. and Mrs. Louie Baker and Frances called on Mr. and Mrs. William Ash Jr. Sunday.

Jason Little and Ethel Jash and family were callers at Chesleys this week.

Mr. and Mrs. John Cask were visitors at Harold Casks Sunday.

Otisfield Gossip

from 1 a.m. to 3 a.m. They report a fine crowd and a good time.

Mr. and Mrs. Everett York took Mr. and Mrs. Sanford Annis and went around the Mountains Sunday, going through Evans Notch and back by way of Fryeburg where they called on Everetts old friend John Manchester. When they started to leave there the car refused to go, so Warren Richardson towed them home then went up and had supper with his cousin Earle Dresser and family.

The entire Thomas family had a picnic dinner Sunday at Windham picnic grounds. There were 18 present. As Mrs. Sarah Thomas birthday came this week she was presented a birthday cake and gifts from the group.

Mr. and Mrs. George Linnell called on Thannie and Ruby Green Saturday evening.

Master James Brett stayed with Ruby Green Saturday evening so that his folks, Mr. and Mrs. Loren Brett could celebrate the night before the 4th. They went to Crescent Lake Pavilion with Mr. and Mrs. Orrell Linnell.

Callers of Mr. and Mrs. Loren Brett and family Wednesday evening were Mr. and Mrs. E.O. Buck and Mr. and Mrs. Reino Johnson and son. Thursday evening callers were Mr. and Mrs. Orrell Linnell.

Thannie and Ruby Green has as supper guests Sunday Mr. and Mrs. N.B. Green and son; Chickey Avery and Herbert Barker. Callers during the day were George Hill, Ralph Vining, Madeline Brett and son James, Janyce Johnson, Mr. and Mrs. Lewis Knightly and 2 girls and Mr. and Mrs. Elias Johnson. On Monday the Greens entertained Mr. and Mrs. Frank Green and daughter Elaine for dinner and had as callers Gloria, Margaret, Richard, Kenneth and Russell Day and Mr. and Mrs. N.B. Green and son.

Mr. and Mrs. Sanford Annis attended the celebration at Bolsters Mills Monday A.M. and report a nice dinner

GERTRUDES CORNER

Hi folks. Did everybody get over the 4th of July all safely? When the 4th of July comes on Sunday then Monday becomes the day to celebrate, - thus the 5th becomes the 4th. We spent the day at the favorite lake and judging by the crowd it was the favorite of other.

At night little fireworks all around at the camps were seen and quite a lot of explosions heard.

Some of the explosions were felt by members of our party; one was hit on her neck slightly and the other on her hind leg.

At the time of the Declaration of Independence, 172 years ago, hardly any of the articles so common today existed, even matches. But the signers of that famous paper whose names range from Josiah Bartlett of New Hampshire to Button Gwinnett of Georgia loved the land they lived in and believed they should have a government that was fair to everyone alike.

- Gertrude I. Barrows

STANDING GRASS FOR SALE AT THE MARTIN PLACE.

Everyone knows Ike changed history and perhaps the fate of the nation when he said, "No." There's a man resting over in York State that says, "Maybe." We are all quite interested in the matter that we are damned republicans too. We wish someone would stop Gertrude I. Barrows bragging; didn't you hear her? Bragging about the weather - the next thing she will be bragging about these tax bills. We do not seem to be saying much about bringing an industry to town; right now FOOD is the great industry everywhere. - Grace Dyer can raise peach trees. Dana Stuart used to say peaches were the best crop a Maine farmer could raise - IF he could do it. Grace always had a green thumb. They say if we really want to make money we should plow up the old pasture and raise beef; it is bound to be high for years. If those tax bills hadn't had us on the run we would like to have said something about the bushes on Bell Hill. Said bushes on both sides of the hill are higher than Mt. Washington. Take your axe when you go that way and cut the bushes. Be careful not to cut the third one. - A Reader.

at noon. In the P.M. they went to Oxford to take some fireworks to her grandchildren and visit her daughter Caribel Jackson and family.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Thurlow and family were in Bolsters Mills Monday A.M. and West Paris in the P.M.

Bessie Dresser and daughter Lucile attended the dance at Bolsters Mills Saturday night. Sunday evening the Earle Dressers called on friends in Waterford.

Mr. and Mrs. Loren Brett, son James and Mr. and Mrs. Orrell Linnell were